

Students and Parents,

Disciple Now Is Here! It will be Thursday, March 3 – Sunday, March 6 and the cost is only $50.

Some of you may be asking, “What is Disciple Now?” Disciple Now is a weekend event for our 6th - 12th graders that takes place here in Roswell. We divide the students into boys groups and girls groups and place them in host homes with adult leaders from our student ministry. The theme this year is No Place Left and is based on Matthew 24:14, “And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.” We will come together as a large group to eat meals, worship, participate in evangelism training, and share the gospel with our community. Some of our students will be leading worship and our speaker will be Bryant Jones. Bryant serves as the Executive Pastor for The Commons in Seattle and oversees the processes of the church. With the heart of a pastor, he is constantly looking to bring encouragement to those taking their next step in their spiritual life. He spends a great deal of his time in discipling relationships with others, helping them process how to live a full life in following Christ. He is also a gifted worship leader, communicator, and trainer full of insightful wisdom to lead out in ministry.

We will be having a DNOW banquet again this year for all the students participating and their parents. This will be Thursday, March 3 at 6:00 p.m. Dinner is on us, so come enjoy a night of worship and food and see what DNOW is all about.
